Lieutenant General Royal Baker
Vice Commander of the Air Defense Command
United States Air Force Academy
Colorado 80840

Dear Roy:

Thank you so very much for the splendid visit to the Mountain and the fine briefings I received there. They gave me exactly what I was looking for--an overall appreciation of the role of NORAD and the way in which we in intelligence should work with it. I am sure we will meet again at various times here or elsewhere, but in the meantime I want to thank you most sincerely for that visit, and please tell General Clay how much I appreciated it as well.

Sincerely,

/s/ W. E. Colby

Commander in Chief
Strategic Air Command

Dear John:

Thank you so very much for a splendid visit to SAC. It gave me exactly the overall view of SAC that I wanted and also enables me to understand much more clearly some of the ways in which we in intelligence might support your activity. I particularly appreciated the chance to discuss some of our intelligence interests, and I think that the schedule itself was right on point. The trip on the airborne data automatic test aircraft was fascinating and reassuring. Colonel Shields and Colonel Moore, at Grand Forks, were most kind to me and gave me a splendid look at the activities there.

All in all it was a great two days, and I cannot express my appreciation to you enough for it.

Sincerely,
